Built in 1925, this pink landmark resort and spa is across the street from a harbor, and less than one mile from the St. Petersburg Pier and The Dali Museum.

Refined rooms come with minibars and marble bathrooms plus flat-screen TVs with premium cable, and coffeemakers. The AAID has negotiated a very competitive rate of $175 per night (single or double) plus tax plus discounted parking, and complimentary access to and free classes in the fitness center.

There are 5 restaurants, including a '20s-style eatery, a coffee shop and a lobby bar. There's a heated outdoor pool, a hot tub & a sauna, as well as a deluxe spa and a golf course.
