SYMPOSIA  INTERACTIVE, HANDS-ON, PRACTICAL

Because of the overwhelming response to the Symposia offered at last year’s Annual Meeting, we are expanding the offerings to give you a more hands-on, practical, and intimate learning experience at AAID’s 60th Annual Meeting.

There will be two concurrent tracks of Symposia that allow you to interact with key clinicians and a world-renowned faculty to gain in-depth knowledge of topics that will make a difference to your practice. You will have several to choose from and watch the AAID website and future mailings to reserve your spot. These are sure to sell out early.

Those who register by March 31, 2011 will have first chance to register for these roundtables and hands-on workshops.

Roundtables – 60 minute sessions limited to 20 participants for an intimate learning experience

Hands-on Workshops – Half-day workshops designed to familiarize you with specific techniques or materials. Limited number of participants.
